

A horizontal bar chart illustrating the distribution of 12 categories across three rows. The categories are represented by colored rounded rectangles: yellow (3), light green (4), teal (3), light blue (2), and light purple (3). The first row contains all 12 categories, the second row contains the first 3 (yellow), and the third row contains the last 3 (light purple).